5 RENT REVIEW

5.1 Market Review

If item 11 of Schedule 1 provides for a market review of Rent on any Rent Review Date, the following provisions will apply:

- 5.1.1 The Landlord may initiate a review of Rent by giving the Tenant a written notice stating the rent which it considers to be the current open market rent for the Premises ("Landlord's notice").
- 5.1.2 If the Tenant disagrees with the proposed rent, the Tenant must give the Landlord a written notice ("Tenant's notice") objecting to the proposed rent within 21 days of the date of the Landlord's notice. Time will be of the essence for the delivery of the Tenant's notice.
- 5.1.3 If the Tenant does not serve the Tenant's notice on the Landlord, the proposed rent as set out in the Landlord's notice will be the Rent for the next Review Period.
- 5.1.4 If the Tenant serves the Tenant's notice within the prescribed time and the parties cannot agree on the rent for the next Review Period, it shall be determined by a valuer who:
 - (a) is a full member of not less than 5 years' standing of the Australian Property Institute - Victorian Division ("API");
 - (b) is qualified as a valuer of premises similar to the Premises; and
 - (c) if the Act applies to this lease, has any other qualifications as required under the Act.
- 5.1.5 If the parties cannot agree upon a valuer within 21 days after the date of the Tenant's notice:
 - (a) If the Act applies to this lease, either party may request the Small Business Commission to appoint a valuer who meets the criteria in clause 5.1.4 to determine the current open market rent of the Premises; or

- (b) if the Act does not apply to this lease, either party may request the President of the Australian Property Institute, Victorian Division, to appoint a valuer who meets the criteria in clause 5.1.4 to determine the current open market rent of the Premises.
- 5.1.6 Until the rent is determined by the valuer, the Tenant must continue to pay the Rent payable just before the relevant Rent Review Date.
- 5.1.7 In determining the current open market rent of the Premises, the valuer must:
 - (a) act as an expert and not as an arbitrator.
 - (b) assume the parties have acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion.
 - (c) assume there is a willing landlord and a willing tenant in an arm's length transaction.
 - (d) consider all submissions made by the parties provided the submissions are made within 21 days of the valuer being appointed.
 - (e) assume that the parties have complied with their respective obligations under this lease.
 - (f) assume that the Premises are fit for immediate occupation and use.
 - (g) assume that the Premises are vacant and available to be leased on the same conditions as this lease.
 - (h) ignore any poor condition of the Premises which has resulted from a breach of this lease by the Tenant.
 - (i) determine the current open market rent of the Premises and give reasons for it in writing as soon as possible after the end of the 21 days allowed for submissions by the parties; and
 - (j) take into account, all other relevant factors, matters or variables used in proper land valuation practices.
- 5.1.8 If for any reason no determination has been made by the valuer within 45 days of the valuer being appointed, then either party may immediately request:
 - (a) if the Act applies to this lease, the Small Business Commission to appoint a replacement valuer who meets the criteria in clause 5.1.4; or
 - (b) if the Act does not apply to this lease, the President of the Australian Property Institute, Victorian Division, to appoint a replacement valuer who meets the criteria in clause 5.1.4.

The provisions of this clause will then apply to the determination by the replacement valuer.

- 5.1.9 The valuer's decision is final and binds the parties.
- 5.1.10 Within 7 days of being informed of the valuer's determination, the parties must make any necessary adjustments to the Rent.
- 5.1.11 The valuer's costs and disbursements must be borne by the parties equally.
- 5.1.12 If the Act does not apply to this lease, then despite any other provision in this lease, the Rent payable as varied under this clause 5.1 must not be less than the Rent payable immediately before the relevant Rent Review Date.

5.2 Percentage Increase

If item 11 of Schedule 1 provides for a percentage increase of Rent on any Rent Review Date, then the Rent (being the amount of Rent payable by the Tenant immediately before the Rent Review Date) shall be increased on the relevant Rent Review Date by the percentage specified in item 11.

5.3 CPI Review

If item 11 of Schedule 1 provides for a CPI review the Rent for the next Review Period will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = B \times \frac{C}{D}$$

where: A is the Rent for the next Review Period;

B is the annual Rent paid by the Tenant just prior to the relevant Rent Review Date;

C is the CPI last published before the relevant Rent Review Date; and

D is the CPI last published at least 12 months before the relevant Rent Review Date.

5.4 Time of Review

Any delay in making a rent review does not prevent the review from taking place and being effective from the relevant Rent Review Date.
