What part of the roadside area do you propose to use and/or place items?

(Please indicate existing and proposed items, and approximate dimensions, in diagrams below; or provide diagram/s attached to permit application.)

Overhead Plan:

The Overhead Plan diagram shows a vertical line on the left labeled 'Property'. To its right is a wider area labeled 'Footpath'. Further right are two parallel vertical lines labeled 'Kerb'. To the right of the kerb is the 'Road'. A pedestrian symbol (a circle with a dot and a horizontal bar) is positioned on the footpath, near the bottom edge.

Side Elevation Plan:
